

The Stand Up For Jesus Rag

© 1980 by James F. Andris. All rights reserved.

Tenor Voice  $\text{♩} = 120$

Piano

You may have heard a - bout the Ma - ple Leaf Rag. And may - be Scott Jop - lin is your bag.
may have nev - er done it be - fore. But ba - by it'll make you feel real good.

You may have spent an i - dle ho - ur. Stroll - in' in the flow - ers. Danc - in' to rag - time.
You know, there's real - ly noth - in' to it. (I'll) show you how to do it. Feet on the floor, now.

Hav - in' a good time. Well, here's a num - ber folks are talk - in' a - bout That you can Lean a lil' for - ward. Now put some ac - tion in those arms and legs And you will sing when spir-its start to sag. Put your hands to-gether peo-ple; stomp and shout to the feel your bod-y start to rise. Pret-ty soon we'll all be Stand-in' up for Je-sus

Stand Up For Je__ sus Raa-haa-hag, to the Stand Up For Je__ sus Rag.
 Right be-fore our ver - y eye-eye-eyes Right be-fore our ver - y eyes.

Stand Up For Je - sus! Don't look so grim.

He gave up His life for you; it's the least you can do for Him.

Stand Up For Je - sus! Do it right now! You just can't turn your back on Him, 'Cause He'll get to you some - how. He'll get to you some - how.

Oh well, you back on Him, You just can't turn your back on Him, 'Cause He'll get I said He'll get to you some - how He got to me, and He'll get to you some - how. Wqah - oh!