

291-32-3848

(Everybody's Fountain's not the Same)

to Jonathon--Rest in Peace, Summer of 1988

Jim Andris
copyright 1974

1 B7 2 E B/G# 3 A B7

Give him a name that he'll be proud of, and give him the hope

4 E B/G# 5 A B7 6 E B/G#

to hold his head up high. and give him the love and the for- tune

7 A B7 8 C#7

that should be al- lowed to ev- ery- one for a time be- fore they die.

9 Fmi7 B7 10 E B/G# 11 A B7

Give him the right to choose his feel- ings, and give him the faith

12 E B/G# 13 A B7 14 E B/G#

to feel his choice is right, and give him a scorn for ar- bi- trar- y ceil-

15 A B7 16 C# 17

ings that dis- tract him from his flight. He's not a man

18 F# F#/A# 19 B C#

un- til he's free, un- til he's what he wants to be. Un- til he says, "I'm proud of me," he's not the best that he can be. Show him the path

20 Eb Bb 21 C# F# B

22 E B/G# 23 A B

that leads up to your moun- tain, and give him the tools

24 E B/G# 25 A B 26 E B/G#

that will help him play your game. And if he seems to be do- ing bad- ly re-

27 A B 28 C# 29 F#mi7 B7

mem- ber, ev- 'ry- bod- y's foun- tain's not the same. The same old

30 D/EF#m7/E 31 E

same.